Family Bible Conference

For the past several years the GGF Family Bible Conference has included a day in which we demonstrate grace by serving the community. This year our projects will include opportunities to serve by doing cleanup for Kent County Trails, working in a food pantry ministry, and helping out at a community center in a Grand Rapids neighborhood. As well as serving others, it is also a great time of interacting with the RPG kids (Jr/Sr High). This will take place on Thursday, July 16 from 9:00 am to noon. Register for the GGF FBC today at www.ggfusa.org/FBC2015.

Co-ed Softball League (18 years and older)

Are you interested in playing on a co-ed softball league in Byron Center at Whistlestop Park? If so, meet with Micah Gunderman after the service in the lobby today to get a headcount and discuss which night would work best for everyone. The leagues run Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday night. The first game would be the week of August 17th. The league would run 6 weeks with one game each week and include a single elimination tournament. More information can be found at: <http://byrontownshiprecreation.org/leagues/softball-leagues/> or by contacting Micah Gunderman at 616-890-5007.

Frontline Women Pool Party

Women of all ages! Frontline Women are hosting a pool party on July 24 at Rom and Andrea Campos' home (3142 Maplepond Drive in Hudsonville) and, yes, the pool is even heated! Come to swim or just relax with the other women from Frontline! Dinner will be potluck style.

Byron Days Flea Market

Byron Community Ministries will again host a flea market in their parking lot during Byron Days on Friday July, 24, 9:00-5:00 pm. The spaces will rent for $10 per space including a table (tables are limited so first come first served). Betsy will also have her famous "jewelry sale" in the garage and she welcomes donations as all profits go to Byron Community Ministries (donations can be dropped off at BCM). We will also be selling hot dogs off the grill, ice-cream and other treats! Michigan Blood will also be hosting a blood drive inside Byron Community Ministries on that day. Please hurry to rent your space, as this sale will bring in many shoppers!
