

LEADERSHIP TEAM QUALIFICATIONS

Any woman wishing to be a part of the FrontlineWomen's Leadership Team must first meet the following qualifications:

- She must be a born-again Christian, and willing to share her testimony.
- She must support the doctrine of Frontline Bible Church.
- She must be in regular attendance at Frontline Bible Church, defined as 3 out of 4 Sundays per month. (Maryedith Rasmusson has been grandfathered in due to extenuating family circumstances, but additional members with attendance constraints would create difficulty within the FrontlineWomen's leadership team.)
- She need not be a "member" of Frontline Bible Church, but needs to be at a place in her life where this is a serious consideration.
- She needs to be involved / investing in her own, personal spiritual growth, and be willing and able to be involved / investing in the spiritual growth of other women.
- She must be willing to commit to a meeting schedule and to participate in the FrontlineWomen's activities being are offered. (A time commitment of a minimum of 6 hours per month is to be expected.)

To be considered by the FrontlineWomen's Leadership Team, contact Kathy Campbell, Director, FrontlineWomen@FrontlineBible.com.
